

Hemchandrachrya North Gujarat University, Patan

Hemchandracharya North Gujarat University was established on 17-5-1986. The University has been functioning since then and growing and expanding steadily. PATAN was chosen for the university Headquarter. It is the holy land of Hemchandracharya a great thinker who made valuable contribution to the studies in grammar, literature, religion and philosophy. The RANI-VAV, a great architectural and sculptural monument of yester years, the lakes of Shahastralinga and Khansarovar, the Jain temples of Panchasara and a few other remains in and around the place testify to the glory that was Patan, in not so distant past.

As per the guidelines of UGC and the Supreme Court, a Committee Against Sexual Harassment (CASH) has been established by HNGU, Patan since January, 2014 to provide a healthy and congenial atmosphere to the staff and students of the University.

- To impart practical knowledge about the basic legal rights and remedies provided under various women related laws, thereby making them fit to face the challenges in real life situations.
- To recognize when a problem or conflict is a legal conflict and a legal solution is available.
- To know how to take the necessary action to avoid problems and where this is not possible, how to help themselves appropriately.
- To know when and how to obtain suitable legal assistance.
- The procedure of approaching and utilizing various channels available for the redressal of grievances i.e. the Police, the Executive and the Judiciary.
- The role of Courts in achieving gender equality, most importantly the concept of public interest litigation. The various machineries/organs of the Justice delivery system available for redressal of their problems/grievances. The role of District Legal Service Authority, Free Legal Aid and Lok Adalats.
- To sensitize Women and Girls about their Rights as provided under the various laws including the Indian Penal Code, 1860; the Dowry Prohibition Act, 1961; the Prevention of Domestic Violence to Women Act, 2005 etc.
- Exposing students to social justice work.
- Raising awareness and building capacity.
- Strengthening community solidarity and supporting grass-roots advocacy.
- To develop confidence that the legal system will provide a remedy

Gujarat State Commission for Women, Gandhinagar

The Gujarat State Commission for Women, set up in 2005 as the State, independent organization to present the views of women to government, is an advisory Non Departmental Public Body (NDPB) which falls into this category. Gujarat State Women's Commission is an institution formed under Act 2002 of State Women Commission with objective of "Upholding and safeguard of women rights"

Mission

- Support, advise and encourage the women's sector to enable all women's voices to be heard effectively.
- Act as a medium for all those voices, in order to both advise and to hold Government to account.
- Promote women's equality
- Ensure the views and experiences of as many women as possible are represented to Government to promote women's equality and change.
- Ensure that where possible, women's opinions are communicated to Government so that they can be taken into account when laws are made and policies decided.
- As far as possible, seek the views of and empower, socially excluded and marginalized women.
- Disseminate messages from government across the women's equality sector.

Vision

- A world where all women can express their needs and priorities and where Government listens and acts so that the needs of all women are considered in Government policy.
- A world in which every woman is respected and is able to achieve their potential, living free from harm and discrimination.
